

Social Media Policy

This policy applies to all Lebanese Cedars RLFA players, officials, parents, supporters and volunteers who create or contribute to Facebook, Instagram, Snapchat, Twitter, TikTok or any other form of social media. This includes but is not restricted to all people who use the leaguenet.com website to register for the organisation for the purposes of playing, and/or coaching, training, managing etc.

The organisation strives to ensure that all members of the Lebanese Cedars RLFA community use online media in a respectful manner that both protects and promotes all participants, your organisation and the governing body's reputation and adheres to the letter and spirit of the law.

All postings should be family friendly and feature positive news. Inappropriate comments in relation to your peers, opponents, the organisation and or the governing body are not to be posted. Stop and consider whether you would want the post directed at you – if not don't post It!

All parents / players when registering grant the Lebanese Cedars RLFA permission to publish photos of participants in approved Lebanese Cedars RLFA social media forums / yearbooks.

Any team-based sites must provide the Lebanese Cedars RLFA Executive committee with access privileges.

Electronic Postings

Abusive, discriminatory, intimidating or offensive statements will not be tolerated under any circumstances. If reported and deemed inappropriate you may face possible disciplinary action by the Lebanese Cedars RLFA executive committee.

If you send or forward emails, attachments, posts with libelous, defamatory, offensive, racist or offensive remarks you can be held liable

If you unlawfully forward confidential information you can be held liable.

All communication with junior team members (Under 18 years of age) should be via SMS and email to provide relevant information – game & training times etc - and must be sent to parents as well as players.

Penalties

Any Lebanese Cedars RLFA players, official, parents, supporter or volunteer who sends or post inappropriate online comments or content regarding any player, official or third party will be subject to disciplinary action by the Lebanese Cedars RLFA executive committee.

Cyber bullying will not be tolerated under any circumstances – it may be a criminal offence that will be reported to the police. Members are reminded that you may be liable for defamation via misleading or false comments posted in your name.
